

Wills & Estates Lawyer (1–3 Years' Call)

Byron Street Legal is seeking a junior lawyer with 1–3 years of post-call experience to support the growth of our Wills & Estates practice in Durham Region. Based in Whitby, Byron Street Legal works on the premise that with hard work comes equal rewards, and one of those rewards is the opportunity to work in the community in which we live. This position offers the opportunity to work within a fast-paced, and expanding environment, with exposure to a broad range of estate planning and estate administration matters.

Position Overview

The successful candidate will assist in the preparation of Wills, Powers of Attorney, and related estate planning documents, as well as estate administration files. The role provides meaningful client interaction, mentorship, and a clear path for professional development within the firm.

Responsibilities

- Draft Wills, Powers of Attorney, and other estate planning documents
- Assist with estate administration
- Participate in business development
- Work collaboratively with colleagues to ensure high-quality client service

Qualifications

- 1–3 years of experience as a licensed lawyer in Ontario
- Some experience working with Wills or estate planning matters is ideal
- Demonstrated leadership ability and strong professional judgment
- Excellent written and verbal communication skills
- Strong interpersonal and networking abilities
- Ability to work independently and manage competing priorities

Compensation

Compensation will be commensurate with experience.

Application Process

Interested candidates are invited to submit a cover letter and résumé with salary expectations in confidence to the attention of Marilyn Short at mshort@byronstreetlegal.ca. We thank all candidates for their interest; qualified candidates will be contacted for a follow up discussion.