

LOCAL PROTOCOL CASE MANAGEMENT COURT

In accordance with the directive of our Chief Justice, the Ontario Court of Justice at Oshawa will be instituting a new case management court for cases that have reached 15 months or older in the set date phase of proceedings.

The first sitting of this court will be September 29th, 2021 at 9:30 a.m. in courtroom 106 at 150 Bond Street East. A Judge of the OCJ will be presiding. Appearances in this court may be in person, by Zoom link or as directed. The court will be held every Wednesday at the same location.

Judicial officers in our various set date courts will be identifying cases that require this type of case management commencing September 7th, 2021. Cases from the first week will be adjourned to September 29th and cases from subsequent weeks will be adjourned to subsequent Wednesdays (generally three weeks hence).

Judges in this court will be focused on identifying and overcoming obstacles to the timely resolution of these cases by trial or otherwise.

Parties should appear in this court prepared to address the issues that have delayed these matters so as to move them forward without further delay. Duty Counsel will be available to offer assistance to eligible parties and the trial coordinator will be available to set dates for trials and pre-trials as deemed necessary by the presiding judge.
