STATEHOUSE ILLUMINATION.

Custodian Kreitenstein Preparing for the Odd Fellows.

Major Krietenstein, custodian of the Statehouse, is working hard this week, looking after the decorations of the building for the I. O. O. F. convention next week. All the huge chandeliers in the four wings have been supplied with colored incandescant globes of different hues, representing the colors of the Odd Fellows. In the four wings 3,800 lights have been used. Around the figures under dome red, white and blue lights will be used so as to throw their glow on the large Spanish-American war flag which hangs from the ceiling. In the approaches to the dome great rosettes of red, green, purple and white lights will be arranged. Streamers of lights will also be hung from the balconies at the far ends and centering around the dome.

Major Krietenstein and his assistants will begin this morning the work of decorating with flags and bunting the corridors and rooms of the Capitol to be used by the Odd Fellows for holding their Supreme Lodge meetings. The halls of the Senate and House of Representatives will be decorated lavishly.

Committee Holds a Meeting.

The remaining members of the committee on grievances and appeals of the Sovereign Grand Lodge arrived in the city yesterday morning. A meeting was held at 9 a. m. for the purpose of organization, and the committee then proceeded to take up the consideration of various appeals which have been made to the Sovereign Grand Lodge during the past year. The action of the committee will be reported to the sovereign body at its first sitting.

GORDON AND LAKE.

They Will Ride Another Match Race at Newby Oval.

Lew Gordon and "Johnny" Lake have been matched again. They will ride a ten-mile match race in the race meet at Newby Oval Friday night. The agreement to ride is a result of a challenge issued yesterday by Lake for a return match. He stipulated that both riders must use single pacing motors. Under those conditions Gordon has accepted. Both men will ride behind wind shields. Gordon is already in training at the oval, and Lake will arrive to-day. Lake does not contend that Gordon had an undue advantage on account of his tandem pace, last Friday night, for he had the right to use a tandem if he wished, but he says he believes he can defeat the Indianapolis rider if they are equally matched.

Three entries have already been received for the automobile races. Dr. Harry Jones and Carl Fisher will ride, and Dr. Harry Hicks has entered his machine, with the understanding that he may select some one else to operate it.

WORK OF THE GOLFERS

LOCKWOOD DEFEATS HOLABIRD BY 4 UP AND 3 TO PLAY.

Duel on the Links Between Two Famous Amateur Players—Only Eight Left in the Tournament.

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., Sept. 11.—Only eight players now remain in the tournament in progress here to decide the amateur golf championship of America, and by to-morrow night the semi-finalists will be the only competitors. Sixteen players started off this morning, and, although the scores of one or two were fairly close, the results were practically foregone conclusions. The links presented a much better appearance than yesterday, having benefited by a heavy shower which fell during the night. The putting greens had, owing to the dry weather, become too keen, and, although they were dry when the players started off, the progress of the ball was somewhat checked, enabling the competitors to judge more accurately.

Interest in the contest was centered in two or three matches, but none attracted the gathering that the Lockwood-Holabird contest did. Both during the morning and afternoon rounds fully 250 people watched the game, which eventually resulted in a victory for Lockwood by 4 up and 3 to play. At the end of the eighteenth hole Lockwood had a gross score of 75, against Holabird's 76. The latter, who is but seventeen years old, is looked upon in Chicago as the future champion, and, judging from the form he displayed, he should have little difficulty in carrying off the premier honors two or three years hence. A conspicuous incident of the morning play was when the pair arrived at the eighth hole. Lockwood, by a good drive, landed dead on the edge of the green. He approached dead and holed out in three, but even this was not sufficient to win the hole, as Holabird's drive landed him ten feet away from the hole, and one more stroke was sufficient. On the return journey two holes later the competitors both halved the 200 yards in two, a feat which has never been performed on the links. At the eleventh Holabird again made two, against Lockwood's three, which gave the Westerner three twos out of four holes, and at the same holes Lockwood made a two and two threes, and could only halve one.

Starting out in the afternoon Holabird took six against his opponents four, he laying himself styme. The second was halved in four while the third went to Holabird. Both pulled their drive, Holabird going fully twenty yards to the left. He, however, made up for his mistake by making a beautiful fifteen-foot putt.

The fourth hole was halved, although it looked at first as though Holabird would make it in one. Lockwood managed to gain the next in six, but luck favored him in this instance. The next hole was Lockwood's in three, the seventh was halved in five and Holabird took the eighth and ninth in three and four, respectively. This left the Bostoner with the same advantage at the turn as when he started the afternoon rounds. On the return journey Lockwood increased his lead to five at the tenth and then for a few minutes he appeared to be nervous and Holabird, who played a strong game, holed out the eleventh in three and the twelfth in four with more than average putts. The next two holes were halved in five, which left Lockwood three up. Holabird, therefore, had his final chance at the fifteenth, a 265-yard hole, but Lockwood proved too strong, negotiating the match in three.

LITTLE INTEREST TAKEN.

Columbia Sails for Newport Without Any Cheering Godspeeds.

BRISTOL, R. I., Sept. 11.—Seldom has the departure of a craft for a contest that holds the interest of millions of people on both sides of the Atlantic been so void of even the cheering toot from a steamer as that this afternoon of the Columbia, the successful defender of the America's cup two years ago. All morning and way into the afternoon preparations for fitting out the Columbia went on briskly.

Former Commodore E. D. Morgan stepped on board at 2:30. The New York Yacht Club flag came down and his own private signal went up. The anchor was hove short and the Columbia was towed down to the Hog Island lightship, where she cast off the line and proceeded to Newport under sail, with Capt. Barr at the wheel.

The Constitution is yet in the harbor and this afternoon the crew began taking down the standing rigging and floating the spars ashore.

Scores of Shooters.

NEW YORK, Sept. 11.—In the second series of matches to-day at the New York State tournament at Interstate Park, L. I., experts from this city captured four of the six divisions of the subscription. The official title of the principal contest was the Brooklyn handicap at 100 targets. L. G. Shortmeier gathered in first money by breaking 89 out of a possible 100, he being followed to the winning mark by C. Dudley, who broke 88, C. M. Van Allen 86, A. McMurchy 86, E. D. Fulford 83, and Sim Glover 82.

ENGINEERS' TROUBLES.

They Will Be Related to the Secretary of the Treasury.

ST. PAUL, Minn., Sept. 11.—The national convention of Stationary Engineers, in session in the Capitol, to-day ordered the president to appoint a committee of five to visit Washington, call on Secretary of the Treasury Lyman J. Gage and tell him their troubles. They desire Mr. Gage to formulate a new set of rules to apply to steam engineers employed in federal buildings. They want no engineer to be compelled to work over eight hours per day, whereas most of the federal engineers work twelve hours. In continuous plants it is desired that watches be changed at least once in three months and two and a half days per month be allowed for leave of absence and sickness, each chief engineer to step down and fill in the vacancy for this absence.

Mrs. Austen has just come to town.

PARADE OF VETERANS

MANY MEMBERS OF THE G. A. R. IN LINE AT CLEVELAND.

Column Was Over Eight Miles in Length, and Half a Million People Cheered the Marchers.

SENATOR HANNA WAS IN LINE

Patriotic Outbrust from "The Flag" of Children—Senator Fairbanks to Speak This Afternoon.

CLEVELAND, Sept. 11.—The surviving veterans of the greatest war in all the annals of history, the Grand Army of the Republic, have again responded to the bugle call and to-day fell into line as they were wont to do in the dark days of the civil war. They awoke this morning to the sound of reveille, and long before the hour set for the starting of the parade they lined the streets and avenues adjacent to Case and Euclid avenues, where the parade was formed.

Old veterans prominent in the affairs of the G. A. R. said it was the grandest parade and the greatest day the organization has ever seen. In a seemingly interminable line of blue the various departments took up their march over the hard, granite pavements. Surging masses of people, numbering in the hundreds of thousands, lined the streets and the housetops, and took advantage of every available point of view along the entire length of the line of parade., In the down-town district the streets intersecting and adjacent to the line of march were one struggling mass of eager and expectant humanity. It is estimated that nearly half a million people were spectators of the magnificent pageant.

The column was over eight miles in length and was splendidly handled, the column moving steadily and with scarcely a halt or a break until the entire line had passed the reviewing stand.

The scene was most inspiring. Octogenarians of the tottering footsteps and others erect and sprightly as in youth, but all with limbs and hearts of steel, plodded patiently side by side, and among the thousands who made up that host there were scarcely a bare half-dozen whom the fatigues of the march caused to fall out before they passed through the living sea of faces in the court of honor and the reviewing stand.

STREETS CROWDED.

Promptly at the hour set for the parade to move, General Leo Rassieur, commander-in-chief, gave the signal and the column moved forward. The solid masses of humanity, which crowded the avenue from curb to curb, gave way like the parting of the waves and the march began. The Governors of several States marched in the line with their posts and were proud to go afoot with their old comrades in the old way. Even Senator M. A. Hanna caught the infection of the hour and left the reviewing stand to march down the line with Memorial Post.

Every department, as it passed the court of honor and neared the living flag of children formed upon the grand stand facing the long vista at the foot of Bond street, was greeted with a patriotic chorus from the throats of thousands of school children composing "the flag." Mingled with the inspiring strains of martial music and patriotic choruses was the unstinted applause of the populace.

With General Rassieur in the reviewing stand were the following: Tom L. Johnson, Gen. David H. Hunt, Gen. Henry S. Peck, Adjutant General F. M. Sterrit, M. A. Taylor, Surgeon George Wilkins, George Stone department commander of Colorado; Gen. John C. Black, of Illinois; Gen. Joel Long, of Illinois; Gen. Daniel E. Sickles, Guy T. Gould, past department commander, of Illinois; Gen. Louis Wayne, of Pennsylvania; Gen. James Barnett, Col. Thomas Scott, of Illinois; L. E. Holden and Gen. J. Warren Keifer.

The parade was led by mounted police. Following were the local grand marshals of the parade, Capt. Russell E. Burdick and his staff. Next came past commanders-in-chief of the Grand Army in carriages. Then followed the grand council of administration. Only Grand Army posts participated. Departments marched in the order of seniority, with Illinois in the lead, except that Ohio, by courtesy, took the last of the line.

In addition to the regular line of veterans ninety bands and 106 drum corps incessantly poured forth patriotic and martial music.

A number of women and children were overcome in the crush incident to the parade, and the Red Cross and city ambulances were kept busy responding to calls, but no serious casualty was reported.

It is expected that the patriotic outburst of to-day will be duplicated Thursday afternoon, when a mass meeting will be held in praise and thanksgiving for the prospective recovery of President McKinley. Senator Hanna, Governor Nash of Ohio, Mayor Johnson of Cleveland, General Rassieur of the Grand Army, Judge William R. Day of Canton, Senator Fairbanks of Indiana, Hon. Charles Grosvenor and Rev. Dr. Manchester, the President's pastor, will address the meeting.

On the choice for commander-in-chief the fight is very interesting and uncertain. The friends of General Torrance are hopeful that a deadlock may ensue between Generals Stewart and Sickles and thus enable him to be the successful candidate. Twenty-five or 30 per cent. of the entire vote is claimed for General Torrance, coming from the West and New England. If there is no selection on the third ballot, General Torrance, his friends claim, has a fine show. Missouri is for Sickles, with General Torrance second choice. Pennsylvania is united on General Stewart. New York caucus gave General Sickles nineteen votes and Stewart twenty-eight.

Ended by a Storm.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 11.—A heavy storm brought to-day's game between St. Louis and Philadelphia to an end after the sixth inning had been played. The local batters were batting Powell freely, and had the game well in hand. Saturday's Baseball Game.

The Commercial Travelers' Club, which is promoting a base ball game to be played Saturday at Washington Park between the "fats" and the "leans" of the organization, have placed tickets on sale at Huder's drug store. This action, they say, is for the accommodation of persons who may wish to "avoid the rush" at the gate, and also because members are fearful of a "hold-up" should such a large amount of money be on hand at one time with the ticket seller. Mayor Taggart and W. H. Watkins will act as umpires.

THE SEPTEMBER STAKES.

Yesterday's Chief Feature at Sheepshead Bay Won by Blues.

NEW YORK, Sept. 11.—In the September stakes for the three-year-olds at a mile and three furlongs at Sheepshead Bay to-day only three started, with Blues as a half hearted favorite, Monarka also being well backed. Blues made all the running, and won as he pleased in a common canter. Four went to the post in the Autumn stakes with August Belmont's Leonid as the favorite. He indulged Major Daingerfield with the lead to the stretch, when he came away and won easily. Winners in order: Gold Braid, 5 to 1; Bowen, 3 to 1; Leonid, 1 to 3; Blues, even; Belvino, 40 to 1; Nones, 3 to 2.

The stewards of the jockey club to-day investigated the ride of Jockey Shaw on Blue Girl in the great filly stakes last Saturday, and after reviewing the evidence presented by the stewards of the Coney Island Jockey Club, suspended Shaw for the remainder of the Coney Island Jockey Club meeting for negligent riding. The stewards say no fraud was established in connection with the race.

Miss Bennett Won in a Storm.

CHICAGO, Sept. 11.—Miss Bennett won the second race at Harlem to-day in mud ankle deep and in the hardest kind of a rainstorm, beating Moneymuss and Burnie Burton. Joe Martin, one of the heaviest backed starters in the race, was left at the post on account of his uncontrollable performances. The track was a sea of mud, and rain throughout the afternoon made matters worse, although an excellent card was up. Winners in order: Aladdin, 7 to 20; Miss Bennett, 7 to 1; Refugee, 5 to 1; Charlie O'Brien, 12 to 1; Pyrrho, 16 to 5; Flying Torpedo, 5 to 2.
